

Basket Making with Ruby Lowery

Class Description

Learn to make a Williamsburg basket in this one-day seminar from a master basket weaver.

Class Schedule: Saturday, March 13

9 to noon and 1 to 4 p.m. (class fee includes lunch)

About Ruby Lowery

A native of Rutherford County, Ruby Lowery makes baskets that have won a number of awards from many competitions—among them the Silver Arts Competition; Civil Arts Heritage Competition, Raleigh; Fall Festival, Waynesville; and the Mount Mitchell Craft Award. One of Ruby's baskets graces the cover of a Handmade in America publication.

"My love of folk art and appreciation of utilitarian art led me to take my first basket weaving course," says Ruby. "Immediately, I knew that this was a passion I would enjoy forever. Basket weaving has been an important part of my life for years now, and there is still excitement and pride each time I begin to create a new basket."

"I always like baskets. It just calms you down," Ruby says. "I just love to make baskets."
